Un omaggio alla tradizione giapponese e all'attenzione ai dettagli della cultura orientale, alla qualità dei laccati e alla maestria delle lavorazioni, alla perfezione della tecnica messa al servizio del gesto creativo. Un nuovo programma che supera l'essenzialità e il rigore delle collezioni disegnate da Carlo Colombo per antoniolupi per esprimere un carattere diverso, un'eleganza assoluta che si esprime nella continuità delle superfici. Protagonista di Okura è il raccordo, la morbidezza dell'innesto tra piani ortogonali, la linea curva che unisce superfici verticali e orizzontali. Ne deriva un'immagine morbida, avvolgente nella quale angoli e spigoli scompaiono, per lasciare spazio ai riflessi che la linea curva e la lucentezza dei laccati trasferiscono a tutto il volume. Realizzabile secondo elementi modulari o su misura, la composizione di mobili Okura accoglierà i nuovi top e i lavabi, pensati per integrarsi al meglio in un progetto unico nel suo genere, nel solco dello spirito innovativo di antoniolupi e della volontà del brand di andare oltre gli stilemi e le tendenze che regolano il mondo dell'arredo, nell'ambiente bagno ma non solo.

A tribute to Japanese tradition and the attention to detail of Eastern culture, to the quality of lacquers and the mastery of workmanship, to the perfection of technique put at the service of the creative gesture. A new program that goes beyond the essentiality and rigor of the collections designed by Carlo Colombo for antoniolupi to express a different character, an absolute elegance that is expressed in the continuity of the surfaces. The protagonist of Okura is the connection, the softness of the engagement between perpendicular planes, the curved line that joins vertical and horizontal surfaces. The result is a soft, enveloping image in which corners and edges disappear, to leave room for the reflections that the curved line and the shine of the lacquers transfer to the entire volume. Made according to modular or custom-made elements, the Okura furniture composition will accommodate the new tops and sinks, designed to integrate at its best in a unique project, in the wake of antoniolupi's innovative spirit and the brand's desire to go beyond the stylistic features and trends that regulate the world of furniture, in the bathroom environment but not only.
